About ASIS

The Australian Secret Intelligence Service (ASIS) is Australia's overseas intelligence collection agency. We are Australia's experts at collecting highly sensitive information – secret intelligence – from sources overseas to keep Australia and our region safe and prosperous.

Our work spans continents and cultures. As a tech-powered and data-driven organisation, we use covert techniques and cutting-edge technology to put us in the right rooms, next to the right people, with the right access to the intelligence we need. We are tasked to collect intelligence – it might be political, military or economic information – deliberately withheld from the Australian Government that might present threats to or opportunities for Australia.

From graduates to career changers, we come from every corner of the country and all walks of life, with backgrounds from all around the world.

Regardless of our ethnicity, experiences and education, we're bound by a shared commitment to something bigger: building a better future for those who come after us. We seek to reflect the community we serve, and welcome applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, women, people with a disability, neurodiverse, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and those who identify as LGBTQIA+.

It's a mission owned by everyone, with opportunities for all.

The role

As an Operations Analyst you will work within a geographic or thematic Headquarters-based team to enable operational outcomes, and support intelligence collection and distribution priorities to deliver impact against the Australian Intelligence Missions (AIMs). You will collaborate with a range of specialised contributors to generate operational impact. These may include HUMINT collectors, linguists, technical specialists, secondees and integreees from counterpart agencies and external agency customers.

These are Canberra-based positions. There may be opportunities for overseas and domestic travel depending on team placement.

A Level 5 Operations Analyst will:

- Engage in foundational and specialised training to develop and maintain skills to deliver impact against operational requirements;
- Gain exposure and experience across a range of capabilities, and provide support in line with organisational priorities and capability proficiency (usually one or more of analysis, coordination, reports, requirements and/or targeting). Capability proficiency will be achieved through appropriate exposure, experience and training;
- Contribute to organisational capability development; and
- Actively engage in supporting and building a psychologically safe team environment.

Role responsibilities

In these roles you will utilise your operations support experience and develop further operations enablement capabilities. Responsibilities and tasks could include, but are not limited to:

- Coordinating multiple activities in support of operations, based on the Australian Government's priorities and requirements;
- Identifying and creating opportunities for new operational activity. This is generated through applied analytical tradecraft in line with operational requirements and organisational resources;
- Performing critical analysis in support of operational activities and reporting output;
- Developing and maintaining subject matter expertise on operational lines of effort, customer requirements and reporting output;
- Producing intelligence reporting that meets ASIS doctrine and standards;
- Maintaining productive working relationships with stakeholders and customers;

- Identifying and contributing to the management and mitigation of risk, and ensuring compliance with relevant legislation and regulations; and
  - Providing administrative support to operational teams and senior officers. This could include written and verbal briefings, visit support, and financial compliance tasks.

Core skills

We encourage applicants with the following skills and attributes to apply:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills, with an ability to produce clear, accurate, impactful and actionable advice;
- Demonstrated ability to work in a high tempo operational environment;
- Experience building and maintaining productive working relationships with a wide range of stakeholders;
- Demonstrated aptitude for critical and creative thinking;
- Demonstrated ability to analyse data in support of solving complex problems; and
- A willingness and ability to work in a high security office environment.

Education and qualification requirements

One or more of the following education, qualifications and/or experience will be highly regarded:

- Aptitude in techniques or technology that assist the collection, mining, manipulation, fusing, exploitation and visualisation of data;
- Aptitude and experience conducting open source (internet) and social media research;
- Specialist knowledge of relevant geographic, thematic or technical subjects;
- Demonstrated proficiency in research and analysis;
- Relevant tertiary qualifications or work/life experience;
- Transferrable work background (e.g. other government agencies with an operational remit, private industry, National Intelligence Community, military, police, and other intelligence related roles); and
- Other relevant skills/expertise (e.g. foreign language expertise).

We are dedicated to building a diverse and inclusive workforce, so if you are excited about this role but your past experience doesn't align perfectly, we encourage you to apply.
